Donna Wilson

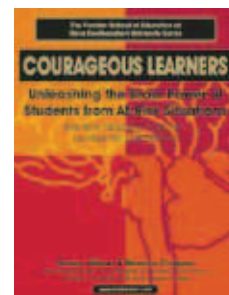

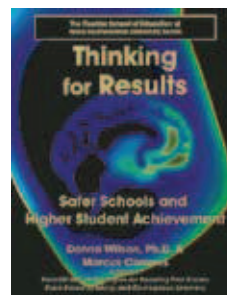

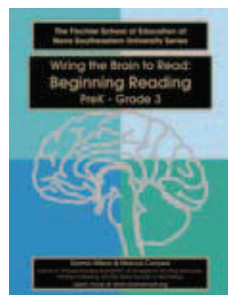

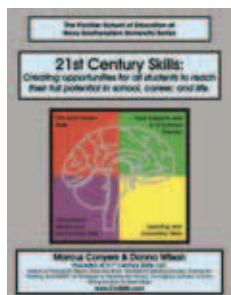

Marcus Conyers

Our sole mission is to help states, communities, and school districts ensure that all students learn the 21st Century Skills they need to reach their full potential and to thrive in the global knowledge economy. Over the last 10 years we have facilitated professional development with 125,000 educators designed to ensure that students are taught the key 21st Century Skills they need for college, career, and life. We provide practical consulting services for putting the P21 framework into practice and specialize in delivering inspiring keynote speeches and integrated live and virtual professional development. Our professional development is based on our 14 books on thinking, learning, and communicating including 21st Century Skills: A Key to America's Future (in press). We are proud to be a professional development affiliate of the Partnership for 21st Century Skills.

Dynamic keynotes and workshops on 21st Century Skills facilitated by Donna Wilson and Marcus Conyers based on their books on learning, thinking, and communicating.

The 21st Century Skills, LLC approach to professional development grew out of an innovative cognitive graduate program at the University of Detroit and a successful three-year Florida Department of Education project. It received a prestigious Annenberg Challenge Grant Award through Florida Atlantic University. The process has been shared live with 125,000 educators across the United States. 21st Century Skills, LLC founders Dr. Donna Wilson and Marcus Conyers deliver dynamic keynotes and workshops that equip educators and administrators with research-based principles and strategies for infusing 21st Century Skills into K-12 education.

Dynamic Workshops

"Donna's dynamic workshops give teachers specific strategies that actually help students achieve at higher levels. This training is great!!!"

*Jeanne Zehr, Principal
Ft. Wayne, Indiana*

Dr. Donna Wilson is a developer and dynamic facilitator of workshops that teach practical thinking and learning tools for raising student achievement. A former university chair of education, she has trained educators in Canada, Europe, Israel and many of the largest school districts in the United States, including New York City, Los Angeles, Chicago, Detroit, Houston and Broward County, FL. Donna is the author of eight books on the learning, thinking and communication skills that all students need to thrive in the global knowledge economy. She is co-author of 21st Century Skills: A Key to America's Future with Marcus Conyers.

Inspiring Keynotes

"I have never seen the group more engaged in learning, and I have never seen a presenter practice what they preach as well as you do. Everyone walked out of there with new tools they could use immediately."

*Kay Cornell
International Elementary School Consortium*

International author, speaker, and consultant, Marcus Conyers, conducts dynamic keynotes and workshops for superintendents, principals, teachers, and other educators on cultivating the 21st Century Skills students need to reach their full potential. He is author of 10 books including 21st Century Skills: A Key to America's Future with Donna Wilson. Marcus has shared his approach with school administrators as well as leaders from the Army Rangers and Navy Seals through his work with Joint Special Operations University. He has consulted with Fortune 500 companies and has worked and traveled in 30 countries worldwide. He is the CEO of 21st Century Skills, LLC and the co-founder of the Center for Innovative Education and Prevention.
